

Chamber Advertises in the Big Leagues

The Greater Rome Chamber of Commerce advertised for economic and industry development in the Atlanta Journal-Constitution on Saturday, July 16th and Sunday, July 24th. Thanks to the many who invested in the Partners in Prosperity campaign. The campaign was designed to keep Rome and Floyd County on the playing field with other major league communities. This also helps in our quest for Corporate Headquarters in Rome and Floyd County. ■

From the Minors to the Majors...

Q: What do Jeff Francouer, Brian McCann, Blaine Boyer & Kyle Davies have in common with these companies?

A: They all began their careers in the minor leagues in Rome and are now stars in the majors.

- State Mutual Insurance Company strikes out the competition with its first rate insurance policies.
- TaxWise is the league leader in online tax preparation.
- Southeastern Mills hits a daily home run with its flour and spices.
- OTR rolls over the competition with its world class wheels.
- Peach State Labs sweeps the competition with its cleaning solutions.

These major league players have joined the Rome team since 2000 in Floyd County: Pirelli North American Headquarters, Suzuki, F&P Georgia, General Shale Brick, Neaton Rome and Branson Tractors North American Headquarters.
