PINNACLE POINTS

- The Tour de Georgia will return to Rome this spring. The bicycle race, which is considered by many as the top annual competitive race in the United States and serves as a tuneup for many Tour de France competitors, will roll through our area April 17th-18th. See www.tourdegeorgia.com for full details.
- Congratulations to the Rome Area History Museum, which set a new record for attendance in a single month this past October. According to the Rome News-Tribune, the museum saw more than 3,000 visitors in October and has already surpassed its record annual attendance mark.
- The U.S. Census Bureau reported in early November that Floyd County holds the highest number of doctors and hospital beds per capita than any other metropolitan area in the state.
- Transportation Expo's inaugural North Georgia Air and Car Show at Richard B. Russell Regional Airport in October was a huge success, drawing approximately 14,500 people to the event. Plans are already underway for the 2007 show. Congratulations to the organizers and volunteers for your success.
- Rome-based Syntec Industries, which produces carpet, vinyl, graphics and accessories for marine, van conversion, automotive aftermarket, recreational vehicle, expo and manufactured housing uses, was honored as Overall Supplier of the Year by boat manufacturer Genmar Holdings, Inc.
