CHAMBER "QUALITY OF LIFE" MAGAZINE RELEASED

The Chamber of Commerce, in conjunction with News Publishing Company and Wallis Printing, has completed the new edition of the "Quality of Life" Magazine. This publication focuses on health-care, education, recreation, culture and economic development areas within our community.

"This publication is used as a primary marketing tool to recruit new businesses, such as corporate headquarters into our community," said Brooks Mathis, Director of Communications for the Greater Rome Chamber of Commerce. "We could not have completed the task without our members who supported this book by advertising."

You may view the book in its entirety on the Rome News-Tribune website at www.romenews-tribune.com and will be available soon on the Chamber website, www.romega.com. ■
