

Post Your Jobs at www.romega.com

If you are trying to fill a position on your staff, from entry-level to an executive position, post your job announcement at www.romega.com. It's easy, and for Chamber members, it's free!

If you do not already post your job listings at www.romega.com, contact Mickey Seward at mseward@romega.com to receive your login and password information. That's all you'll need to make your free job listing available to anyone with a computer.

Those that already use the jobs page at www.romega.com have been pleased.

"I want to let you know what a wonderful response we had with the job listing on the Chamber of Commerce website," Sharon Baldwin, Jennings and Atha, PC, Certified Public Accountants, said. "We received around 30 or more resumes. Thank you very much for your help. I am going to encourage everyone to use the Chamber website."

Job Posting Tip: If you have a long job announcement, try pasting into a text file, such as notepad, and then copying and pasting it into the online form. Pasting the announcement from a Microsoft Word formatted document uses more characters and makes it less likely your job posting will fit. ■

The Ridge Takes Over for Oldies 95.7

The airwaves saw another turn this fall, when WATG 95.7 FM switched formats. Formerly Oldies 95.7, WATG is now known as The Ridge and features the classic hits format.

"We specialize in playing all your favorite and familiar classics from the 60s, 70s and 80s, 24 hours a day," said morning drive personality Matt D, who can be heard from 6:00 to 9:00 a.m., Monday through Friday.

"The station's goal is to connect with the Baby Boomer Generation; they are hard-working, family-oriented, with money to spend and want a break from their hectic life. This audience wants convenience and escape ... The Ridge 95.7 will be the station for them," WATG co-owner and general manager Randy Davis said.

Davis' partner, Jim Bojo (LR '00), who serves as station manager at The Ridge, added, "It is the rock and roll hits that Baby Boomers grew up on."

The Ridge 95.7 will continue to broadcast a complete line-up of sports including the Rome Braves, as well as Shorter Hawks, Atlanta Falcons and high school football, according to Bojo. Soon, The Ridge 95.7 will also broadcast Jubilation: Celebrating God's Glory in Song on Sundays from 6:00 a.m. until noon. (Falcons' football may pre-empt Jubilation on some Sundays.) ■

Consider Your Nomination for Small Business of the Year Award

The Small Business Action Council of the Greater Rome Chamber of Commerce is presently accepting nominations for the Small Business of the Year Award. As you consider businesses for nomination, please use the following criteria:

- Business must be a Chamber member.
- Applicant must have 50 employees or less.
- Applicant must be an owner or partner of a business in Floyd County and must be active in the day-to-day management of the company for at least 5 years.

- The company must have been in business for at least 5 years.
- Applicant must be willing to serve as ambassador of local small businesses during the year in which he/she receives the award.

For more information or to nominate a business, please call Diane Tracy at 706.291.7663 or email dtracy@romega.com. She will send a nomination form directly to the business owner for them to complete and return to the Chamber. ■

Nominations must be received at the Chamber office by Friday, December 15th, 2006.