ROMANS MAKE FIRST INTERCITY LEADERSHIP VISIT

A group of business and elected leaders from Greater Rome made a trip to Columbus, Georgia, for Rome's first-ever Intercity Leadership Visit Sept. 6th-7th. Among the topics discussed by some of Columbus' most influential leaders were Columbus' public-private partnerships, the role of servant leadership in Columbus' business world, stories of growth in Columbus, parking garage partnerships, consolidated government and the positive ways in which SPLOST initiatives have changed Columbus. The fact-finding trip was made possible by the Chamber's Partners In Prosperity initiative.
