

A-Team's Plan Comes Together

"I love it when a plan comes together." That was the familiar phrase used near the end of just about every episode of the 1980s television hit The A-Team by Lt. Col. John "Hannibal" Smith, the group's mastermind.

The A-Team's plan came together again in May, but this was a different group with a different mission. This group was comprised of Chamber Ambassadors and the goal was to register the most new Chamber members of any group during the 2007 Membership Drive. And like Hannibal's rag-tag group 20 years ago, this A-Team's plan came together.

By earning designation as the top producing team in this year's membership drive, the A-Team won a deck party at Harvest Moon Café later this fall.

The A-Team was led by Missy Armstrong, Aliyah Personnel, who won the prize as the top individual sales person. Rob Harbison, Peachtree Planning, served as the team captain.

Overall, the campaign brought in more than $20,000 worth of new memberships. 🏠
