HOLY TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, located at 3000 Garden Lakes Blvd., recently broke ground on a new sanctuary building on its campus. The new sanctuary building will allow a larger venue for the church's services. When the new sanctuary is complete, Holy Trinity will remodel its current building into better Sunday School facilities.

Washington, D.C. Trip...

Much of the meeting with the U.S. Department of Education focused on the Floyd County Charter School Career Academy.

During much of the trip, Janet Byington of Congressman Gingrey's office and Marie Gordon of Senator Isakson's office accompanied Chamber Members during visits. A panel discussion featuring Chief of Staff Charlie Harman of Senator Chambliss' office, Deputy Chief of Staff Chris Carr and Senior Policy Advisor/Director of Communications Joan Kirchner of Senator Isakson's office, and Chief of Staff Sean Dalton of Rep. Gingrey's office also gave Chamber members an opportunity to give and receive feedback to and from their legislators.

Rev. David Campbell, Trinity United Methodist Church (left), Matt Mitchell, Greater Rome Chamber intern and Shorter College student (center), were presented United States flags that had flown over the nation's capitol building in their honor. U.S. Senator Saxby Chambliss presented the flags to the two veterans of Operation Iraqi Freedom, who were in Washington as part of the Chamber's Washington Issues and Opportunities Conference. Rev. Campbell was an Army Chaplain in Iraq. Mitchell was a member of the U.S. Marine Corps.
